MEXICO CITY, MEXICO – June 25, 2018 – Petróleos Mexicanos ("PEMEX") announced today that it has elected to redeem in full its 5.500% Notes due 2019 (the “Notes”). The aggregate principal amount of Notes to be redeemed by PEMEX is U.S. $191,356,000.

The redemption date for the Notes will be July 3, 2018 (the “Redemption Date”).

The Notes will be redeemed at par, plus accrued and unpaid interest on the principal amount of the Notes from and including February 4, 2018 to (but not including) the Redemption Date, plus a make-whole amount to be determined on the third business day preceding the Redemption Date. The make-whole amount will be calculated pursuant to the terms of the Notes as the excess of (i) the sum of the present values of each remaining scheduled payment of principal and interest on the Notes (exclusive of interest accrued to the date of redemption), discounted to the Redemption Date on a semi-annual basis (assuming a 360-day year consisting of twelve 30-day months) at the applicable Treasury Rate plus 50 basis points over (ii) the principal amount of the Notes.

Payment on the Notes will be made on or prior to the Redemption Date by credit to the accounts of participants in The Depository Trust Company, upon presentation and surrender of the Notes at the offices of Deutsche Bank Trust Company Americas, the trustee for the Notes.

On the Redemption Date, the redemption price for the Notes will become due and payable. Unless PEMEX defaults in paying the redemption price for the Notes, interest on the Notes called for redemption will cease to accrue, and the Notes will cease to be listed on the Luxembourg Stock Exchange. Upon redemption, the Notes and the related guarantees will be cancelled and any obligation thereunder extinguished.
